PROTECTING
our families, neighborhoods,
and the Northeast Valley

MONICA RODRIGUEZ

is a local community leader and problem solver with experience protecting our communities and delivering for the Northeast Valley

Monica Rodriguez grew up in a working-class family in the Northeast Valley, the daughter of a Los Angeles firefighter, and is now raising two children with her husband Raul. Monica understands the challenges facing local families and Valley neighborhoods.

Monica believes residents should have a stronger voice at City Hall. As our Councilmember, Monica will stand up for working families, create new job opportunities, make our neighborhoods safe, and deliver resources and services for the Northeast Valley.

Bringing new energy, solutions, and an independent voice to City Hall

A RECORD OF RESULTS

- ✓ Led creation of the L.A. Small Business Academy, helping local businesses create good jobs
- ✓ Helped thousands of families and seniors from losing their homes to foreclosure during the Recession
- ✓ Co-founded the F.I.R.E. Academy, providing career training skills for at-risk youth
- ✓ Worked to expand after-school and early childhood education programs
- ✓ Managed an annual budget of $565 million and led 5,500 employees as L.A. City Commissioner
- ✓ Cracked down on cronyism and corruption, bringing more accountability to City Hall
