

MONICA RODRIGUEZ DELIVERS

for our Families and Neighborhoods

Community Leader, Problem Solver Monica Rodriguez Delivers Results

As a longtime community leader, business woman, and Los Angeles Commissioner, Monica Rodriguez has the experience we need to fight for Valley families and neighborhoods on the City Council.

- ✓ Proven record of bringing transparency and accountability to city government, cracking down on cronyism and no-bid contracts, and saving tax dollars
- ✓ Co-founder of the F.I.R.E. Academy, an after-school career training program
- ✓ Led efforts to help thousands of families and seniors protect their homes from foreclosure during the Recession
- ✓ Secured millions to repair and improve Valley streets, sidewalks, neighborhoods, public transportation, and infrastructure
- ✓ Established the L.A. Small Business Academy, helping local businesses compete for public projects, keeping jobs and resources in our community

Monica is the Only Candidate Endorsed by Firefighters, Police, and Public Safety Leaders
