Problem Solver. Record of Results.

MONICA RODRIGUEZ

FOR CITY COUNCIL

A Problem Solver and Local Valley Leader

As an experienced local leader, former Public Works Commissioner and problem solver, Monica has a proven record of delivering results for Valley families and neighborhoods:

Delivered Funding for Safer Neighborhoods

Created Job-Training Programs and Expanded After-School Programs

Helped Small Businesses Create Local Jobs

Protected Families and Seniors from Wall Street Banks

Stood Up to Downtown Special Interests

Preserved Open Space and Clean Water

The daughter of a Los Angeles Firefighter who grew up in the Northeast Valley, Monica co-founded the F.I.R.E. Academy, an after-school career training program for at-risk youth.

On the City Council, Monica will be a leader in reducing crime and violence in our streets and neighborhoods:

- ✓ Crack down on gangs and drugs
- ✓ Improve emergency response times
- ✓ Strengthen community policing
- ✓ Keep at-risk youth on the right path
- ✓ Improve vital city services
